

Producer of culture
media and blood derivates

Národní 84
551 01 Jaroměř

+420 491 810 091
info@labmediaservis.cz
www.labmediaservis.cz

By verifying of the microbiological clearance of the samples in collaboration with State Veterinary Institute in Jihlava there was proved that the samples were without contamination. These results were important for registration of the device as veterinary technical device on Czech Institute for State Control of Veterinary Biological and Medicines and its registration as the patent No. 305628.

MetriCult set

Guarantees sampling without contamination

Without affecting of fertility

Also for screening in mares

A test set for taking samples for examination of endometritis in dairy cows

The test set consists of:

- 1 disposable catheter for inserting of the swab for taking of the sample from uterine wall of the animal, without risk of contamination from the environment of the vagina
- 2 test tube with transport medium Amies for transportation of the sample to the laboratory for microbiological examination

The tip of the catheter (the cover of the swab) is made of biodegradable material.

